Important Safety Information

Read the following warnings before you or your child play video games.

WARNING - Seizures

- Some people (about 1 in 4000) may have seizures or blackouts triggered by light flashes or patterns, such as while watching TV or playing video games, even if they have never had a seizure before.
- Anyone who has had a seizure, loss of awareness, or other symptom linked to an epileptic condition should consult a doctor before playing a video game.
- Parents should watch when their children play video games. Stop playing and consult a doctor if you or your child have any of the following symptoms:

Convulsions	Eye or muscle twitching	Loss of awareness
Altered vision	Involuntary movements	Disorientation
- To reduce the likelihood of a seizure when playing video games:
  - Sit or stand as far from the screen as possible.
  - Play video games on the smallest available television screen.
  - Do not play if you are tired or need sleep.
  - Play in a well-lit room.
  - Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour.

If, after reading all the instructions, you still have questions, please visit our customer service area at www.nintendo.com (in Canada, www.nintendo.ca) or call 1-800-255-3700.

WARNING - Repetitive Motion Injuries and Eyestrain

Playing video games can make your muscles, joints, skin or eyes hurt after a few hours. Follow these instructions to avoid problems such as tendinitis, carpal tunnel syndrome, skin irritation or eyestrain:

- Avoid excessive play. It is recommended that parents monitor their children for appropriate play.
- Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour, even if you don't think you need it.
- If your hands, wrists, arms or eyes become tired or sore while playing, stop and rest them for several hours before playing again.
- If you continue to have sore hands, wrists, arms or eyes during or after play, stop playing and see a doctor.

⚠ WARNING - Battery Leakage

The Game Boy micro contains a rechargeable lithium ion battery pack. Leakage of ingredients contained within the battery pack, or the combustion products of the ingredients, can cause personal injury as well as damage to your Game Boy. If battery leakage occurs, avoid contact with skin. If contact occurs, immediately wash thoroughly with soap and water. If liquid leaking from a battery pack comes into contact with your eyes, immediately flush thoroughly with water and see a doctor.

To avoid battery leakage:

- Do not expose battery to excessive physical shock, vibration or liquids.
- Do not disassemble, attempt to repair or deform the battery.
- Do not dispose of batteries in a fire.
- Do not touch the terminals of the battery, or cause a short between the terminals with a metal object.
- Do not peel or damage the battery label.

Do not remove the rechargeable battery pack from the Game Boy micro unless it needs to be replaced.

Do not use any battery other than the Game Boy micro rechargeable battery pack. A replacement battery may be ordered through Nintendo's web site at www.nintendo.com or call Customer Service at 1-800-255-3700.

4

When recharging the battery pack, only use the Game Boy micro AC Adapter included with this system.

When disposing of the battery pack, follow appropriate local guidelines and regulations. For information on battery disposal contact your local solid waste authority.

IMPORTANT: Do not spill liquids on the Game Boy micro, Game Paks or other components or accessories. If the Game Boy micro comes into contact with liquids, wipe clean with a soft, slightly damp cloth (use water only). Remove the battery cover and battery. If liquid has come into contact with the battery, do not reuse it. Call Nintendo Customer Service at 1-800-255-3700 for further instructions on battery replacement and possible service to your Game Boy micro.

Refer to the separate Game Boy Health and Safety Precautions booklet for additional information on hardware and software precautions and maintenance.

IMPORTANT: This product is a complex electronic device that can be damaged by direct physical impact. A protective carrying case (sold separately) may help prevent problems related to impact damage.

NOTE: This product does not contain latex, lead, mercury, cadmium, hexavalent chromium, PBB or PBDE.

Compatibility with Game Boy Games & Accessories

The Game Boy micro is compatible with Game Boy Advance Game Paks and authorized Game Boy micro accessories.

The Game Boy micro will NOT work with the following games or accessories:

- Original Game Boy Game Paks
- Game Boy Color Game Paks
- Game Boy or Game Boy Advance Game Link® cables*
- Game Boy Advance Wireless Adapter*
- Game Boy Advance e-Reader
- Nintendo GameCube™ Game Boy Advance cable
- Game Boy Printer
- Game Boy Camera

*See pages 17-19 for additional information on multiplayer gameplay between the Game Boy micro and the Game Boy Advance or Game Boy Advance SP.

Charging the Game Boy micro Battery Pack

Do not use the Game Boy micro AC Adapter during a lightning storm. There may be a risk of electric shock from lightning.

Before you use the Game Boy micro for the first time, or after you have not used it for a long time, you must charge the battery. (If the Game Boy micro will not be used for long periods of time, the battery should be recharged at least once every six months.)

When fully charged, the battery will last from six to ten hours depending on the type of game activity. It takes approximately 2-1/2 hours to recharge the battery. (The actual time varies depending on how much battery life you have left.) You can play games while recharging the battery, but the recharge time will be longer.

The battery can be recharged approximately 500 times, but performance may decrease after repeated recharges, depending on usage conditions such as temperature. (Optimal charging temperature is between 50 and 95 degrees Fahrenheit.) Battery life may also decrease over time. After 500 recharges, battery life may be only 70% of the battery life when new.

The START and SELECT Power Indicator LEDs indicates the charge status of the battery pack:

- When you turn the power ON, the LEDs may blink blue for about 3 seconds. This indicates adequate charge in the battery pack.
- When you turn the power ON, the LED may blink red for about 3 seconds. This indicates that the battery pack should be recharged.
- During game play, the LED may light red and stay on. This indicates that the battery pack should be recharged. Save your game progress and recharge the battery pack as soon as possible.
- During the recharge process, the LED will light blue and stay on until the battery pack is fully charged.

IMPORTANT: The Game Boy micro AC Adapter is only for use with the Game Boy micro handheld video game system. It is not compatible with the original Game Boy, Game Boy pocket, Game Boy Color, Game Boy Advance, Game Boy Advance SP or the Nintendo DS.

1. Insert the DC Connector Plug from the AC Adapter into the External Extension Connector on the top of the Game Boy micro.

IMPORTANT: Be sure the DC Connector Plug is facing in the correct direction before inserting into the connector to avoid damaging either the plug or connector. (The Nintendo logo should face up.)

2. Swing the prongs out of the AC Adapter and insert into a standard 120-volt AC wall outlet. The START and SELECT Power Indicator LEDs will light blue until the battery is fully charged.

IMPORTANT: Be sure that the prongs are fully inserted into the outlet. The AC Adapter is intended to be correctly oriented in a vertical or floor mounted position. When disconnecting any plugs from the Game Boy micro or the wall outlet, carefully pull by the plug itself rather than by the cord

3. When fully charged, remove the AC Adapter from the wall outlet and fold the prongs back into the housing. Remove the DC Connector Plug from the External Extension Connector.

IMPORTANT BATTERY GUIDELINES:

- Do not remove the battery from the Game Boy micro unless it needs to be replaced.
- Do not use any battery other than the Game Boy micro rechargeable battery pack. A replacement battery may be ordered through Nintendo's web site at www.nintendo.com (USA/Canada only) or by calling Customer Service at 1-800-255-3700.
- When recharging the battery, use ONLY the included AC Adapter, Model No. OXY-002.
- When disposing of the battery, follow appropriate local guidelines and regulations. For information on battery disposal contact your local solid waste authority.
- If liquid comes into contact with the battery, do not reuse it. Call Nintendo Customer Service at 1-800-255-3700 for further instructions on battery replacement and possible service to your Game Boy micro.

Using the Game Boy micro

1. Insert a Game Boy Advance Game Pak into the Game Pak Slot on the bottom of the Game Boy micro. The Game Pak label should face towards the back of the Game Boy micro.

CAUTION: Always check the Game Pak edge connector for foreign material before inserting the Game Pak.

2. Turn the power ON by pushing the Power Switch to the right.
3. The screen will display the Game Boy logo, and then change to the display for the game that you are playing.
4. To adjust the screen brightness, hold the L Button down while pressing the Volume/Brightness Adjustment Switch on the right side of the Game Boy micro up or down.

NOTE: For optimal battery life, adjust the screen brightness to the lowest comfortable level.

5. When finished playing, first turn the power off and then slide the Game Pak out of the Game Boy micro.

NOTE: To avoid dirt or dust from getting into the Game Boy micro, always leave a Game Pak loaded (with the power off), when not in use.

IMPORTANT GAME PAK GUIDELINES:

- Always check the Game Pak edge connector for foreign material before inserting it into the Game Pak Slot.
- Be sure to orient the Game Pak correctly before inserting it into the Game Pak Slot.
- Do not turn the power off or remove the Game Pak while saving game data, or the save data may be lost.

Multiplayer Game Play

Multiplayer game play is possible using one of the following methods:

1. Game Boy micro Wireless Adapter - communicate with either another Game Boy micro using a Wireless Adapter, or with a Game Boy Advance that has a Game Boy Advance Wireless Adapter attached (see page 18).
2. Game Boy micro Game Link cable - Link up with other Game Boy micro systems (see page 19).
3. Game Boy micro Converter Connector - Used with a Game Boy micro Game Link cable, you can link up with another Game Boy Advance or Game Boy Advance SP (see page 19).

(See pages 18 and 19 for a description of Game Boy micro multiplayer accessories. ACCESSORIES ARE SOLD SEPARATELY. Go to Nintendo's web site at www.nintendo.com (USA/Canada only) or call Customer Service at 1-800-255-3700 to order.)

You must be using Game Boy Advance Game Paks that feature either linked or wireless multiplayer game play. Look for these icons on Game Paks that include this feature.

IMPORTANT: Be sure to check the Game Pak packaging and read the Game Pak instruction booklet for the game you are playing to see if you need more than one copy of the game to play multiplayer games, and to see how many players can play simultaneously.

Multiplayer features and set-up methods will vary from game to game. Please read the Game Pak instruction booklet for the game you are playing for features and correct set-up information.

- Multiplayer connection using the Game Boy micro Wireless Adapter. You can communicate with either Game Boy Advance or Game Boy Advance SP systems that are using Game Boy Advance Wireless Adapters.

- Multiplayer connection using the Game Boy micro Game Link cable.

- Multiplayer connection using both the Game Boy micro Game Link cable and Game Boy micro Converter Connector. Connect to either a Game Boy Advance or Game Boy Advance SP.

18

Changing the Faceplate

You can change the look of your Game Boy micro by changing the faceplate.

IMPORTANT: To protect the LCD Display Screen, always keep a faceplate attached to the Game Boy micro.

1. Insert the Faceplate Ejector tool into the ejector holes on the left side of the Game Boy micro. Remove the faceplate.
2. Insert the tabs on the right end of the new faceplate into the slots on the inside of the Game Boy micro and snap the left end of the faceplate into place (see below.)

Battery Pack Replacement

Do not remove the battery from the Game Boy micro unless it needs to be replaced. Please review the instructions included with the replacement battery pack before installation.

1. Make sure the power is turned OFF. Remove the battery cover, using a small (#0) Phillips head screwdriver.
2. Remove the battery pack from the battery compartment and carefully unplug the battery connector from the Game Boy micro.
3. Carefully plug the connector from the new battery into the socket.
4. Replace the battery pack and battery cover.

IMPORTANT: The battery pack must be charged after installation. (This will take approximately 2-1/2 hours). Please review pages 11-14 for information on charging the battery pack.

Entertainment Software Rating Board (ESRB)
Video and Computer Game Software Rating Information

The Entertainment Software Rating Board (ESRB) ratings are designed to provide information about video and computer game content, so you can make informed purchasing decisions. ESRB ratings have two parts: rating symbols suggest age appropriateness for the game, and content descriptors indicate elements in a game that may have triggered a particular rating and/or may be of interest or concern. To take full advantage of the ESRB rating system, it's important to check both the rating symbol (found on the front of the game box) and the content descriptor (found on the back of the game box). Go to www.esrb.org for a complete list of these content descriptors.

The ESRB rating system is designed to provide information about a computer or video game. The ratings are not meant to recommend which games consumers should buy or rent or to serve as the only basis for choosing a product. Rather, individuals should use the ESRB ratings together with personal tastes and standards when deciding what is best to purchase.

For more information on the ESRB and video game ratings, go to the ESRB web site at www.esrb.org.
